A DOCTOR'S REVOLVER

Is Mixed Up In the Zoellars Case.

IT MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED

But Turned Up After the Celestial Had Been Robbed—A Young Man Took It From the Physician's Desk, and It Finally Came to Zoellars.

Nearly every day since the robbery of the Chinaman, Hum Sing, at the Celestial's place of business on Second street, new evidence has appeared, but recently facts of more importance than usual have been discovered and would be interesting if given in court.

The story as it goes dates back to the time when mention was made in the News Review of the disappearance of a revolver and some other articles from the private office of Dr. F. M. Laughlin, Market street. The statement then made that the doctor believed one of his patients had taken the weapon has been borne out by the statement of the party who took the weapon. The doctor was somewhat surprised when a few days ago a young man entered his office, and produced the revolver. He told the doctor that having known him so well he thought no harm in taking the gun for a few days, and had picked it up while the physician was in the main office. He claimed that he had no intention of stealing it at the time, and had hesitated when at the foot of the stairs whether or not to go back and tell him about it. But presuming on his friendship and intending to return the revolver in a short time he went out in town. Other statements showed that the revolver had been given a history which neither the doctor nor his patient will soon forget. From the doctor's office the young man went to a Sixth street billiard room, and became engaged in conversation with Dutch Zoellars. He discovered in a few minutes that Zoellars had touched him, and that the pistol was in his possession. From an argument about the revolver it turned to a quarrel, and the young man was mixed up in the affray when Officer Badgley appeared, and there was a sudden cessation of hostilities. The men promised to behave themselves if no arrests were made, and after the officer departed Zoellars started down street. A few minutes afterward the robbery occurred. One man relieving the Chinaman of $60, while another held a revolver in front of the frightened Celestial's face. This was the doctor's gun, and when the robbery was complete, the revolver was to a boy on the street for a quarter. Later the young man called on Zoellars in the city jail and asked him for the weapon. He was told the name of the boy and given a quarter with which to purchase it again. The young man hunted up the boy and secured the pistol after a short argument as to its value, and nobody was any the wiser, the boy having kept the fact of the purchase a secret from his parents, fearing their wrath and the young man did not care to tell anybody about it. The revolver had five loads in it when taken from the office, but every cylinder was empty when it was returned. The young man and the doctor both mourn over the affair but console themselves with the knowledge that although it came near it, the pistol did not send Hum Sing into another world.

AN EXCEPTIONAL DAY.

Unusually Good Sermons at the Different Churches.

At the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning Doctor Lee preached to the American Mechanics, and among other things declared that immigrants were given the right to vote too soon after becoming residents of the country. His words met with the approval of the Mechanics.

At the evening service Doctor Lee illustrated his sermon by several large paintings, and spoke in an entertaining manner. Mrs. J. C. Thompson sang "There is a Green Hill," after the sermon, filling the church with her beautiful, rich voice in a manner which brought encores from all of the great congregation present.

Reverend Berry, president of one of the most important societies connected with the Methodist Protestant church, occupied Reverend Whitehead's pulpit yesterday, delivering masterly remarks.

The First Presbyterian church was filled to overflowing yesterday afternoon when Reverend Wishart told the people of the aims and projects of the Good Citizenship league. He told the story of the league from its earliest inception, and explained just why there was need of such an organization, the facts having already been given in the News Review. A meeting will be held in the same place tomorrow evening.

Reverend Cassel, of Ulrichsville, occupied the pulpit of Reverend Huston yesterday, and delivered a powerful sermon in the morning to the Knights of Pythias. The members of the order turned out in force, many being present, and the services pleased them all.

That Connecting Link.

The story of a connecting link between the Wheeling and Lake Erie road at Steubenville and the Vanderbilt lines in Pittsburg will not down, and is continually bobbing up in New York. The error concerning a survey from Wellsville has been corrected, and the papers now say that the connecting link will be started at Steubenville. The new road may or may not go up the river, but engineers who know the ground assert that it would be folly to take any other route. At present the line is being built on paper.

Another Life Gone Glimmering.

Mayor Gilbert smiled on Saturday night when shown an item in an irresponsible local sheet, doubting the statement made in the News Review that there was some doubt as to whether East Liverpool had a contract with the Canton workhouse. He said that he gave out the information regarding the time when the prisoners were to be taken, but the remainder of the item was a lie out of whole cloth. He made no such assertion. Perhaps that paper will some day learn that the policy of prevarication does not pay.

Driving Nails, Sewing Buttons.

The ladies of the Golden Eagle held a unique social in Rechabite hall on Saturday evening, the principal features being a contest among the men as to who could sew to a piece of cloth, in a given time, the largest number of buttons, and another in which the ladies alone took part, which discovered the best nail driver. Frank Salisbury put on 22 buttons in 15 minutes, and Miss Carrie Crosser drove 91 nails in the same time. They were declared the winners amid great rejoicing and disappointment.

Prevented a Solo.

The friends of a talented cornetist are laughing at him today because, as they claim, he strayed from the straight and narrow way yesterday. He is a good man, and never uses profanity, but when he picked up his cornet and began to blow he was surprised to hear no sound. A few more efforts puffed out his cheeks and made him angry, but brought no noise. Then he investigated, and upon finding the horn stuffed with paper became angry, and, his friends say, he gave utterance to wicked words.

Died in Indiana.

Mrs. Sophia Trippy died at her home near Mt. Pleasant, Ind., aged 81 years. Deceased was born in Middleton township, this county, but moved to the West in 1880. Eight children are left to mourn her loss, among them being Mrs. Burlingame, Calcutta road, this city. Mrs. Burlingame, accompanied by her husband, went to Indiana, a few weeks ago, having learned that her aged mother could live but a little while, and had expressed a wish to see all her children before she died.

Stopped the Leak.

The gas about the house of W. B. Fowler, Sixth street, has been escaping for some time, and today a lot of boys made the discovery. After repeated attempts they ignited it near the curb, and the fire soon spread along the pipe. As the pipe enters the house there was fear that the building would ignite, but it was finally saved by an attempt to turn off the gas proving successful. It is said that similar leaks exist in different parts of the city and might prove serious at any time.

Married Yesterday.

Clarence Suediker, of Wellsville, and Miss Emma E. Peake were married at the residence of the bride's parents, in the West End, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Squire Rose in the presence of only the immediate relatives. For the present the happy couple will reside at the home of Ex-councilman Peake, father of the bride. The groom is a well known clerk who is employed in Wellsville.

Forcible Detention.

N. Geon entered suit in Squire Manley's court this morning against Mr. Delaney, of 233 Church alley for forcible detention. The case will be heard at 8 o'clock on Thursday morning.

TAKEN TO THE WORKS

Our First Consignment Gone to Canton.

THERE ARE OTHERS TO FOLLOW

Major Gilbert Collects Fines Now That the Law Breakers Realize What Will Happen if They Refuse to Pay—Police Court.

John Burns and John Hurley were this morning taken to the Canton workhouse by Officer Supplee, being the first consignment sent by the city. The men had fines marked against them, and being unable to pay, the sentence of the court was carried out. They have been in jail for some time, but because of the uncertainty as to the contract between the city and the Stark county authorities they have been detained. It was expected that the first batch would be made up of four, but the others were released this morning. Wilson, who was a companion in trouble with Hurley, was given an opportunity to pay his fine by cleaning city hall. He did the work so well that Mayor Gilbert let him go. Braunberger was also given his liberty, but not before S. Toothman appeared on the scene, and gave security for the payment of his fine. The unfortunates who went over the road will likely remain 45 days before all they owe has been liquidated.

John Owen, a son of Jack Owen, is only a boy, but when Officer Jennings found him staggering along Second street late Saturday night he decided that the youngster was safer behind the bars, and walked him to city hall. In his pocket was a half pint bottle filled with whisky, and he said that he had been in Wellsville. This carries out the story that young boys from this place go to the neighboring town for the purpose of getting drunk. As the boy is young, the mayor decided to give him another chance, and he was released after spending the night in jail.

Joseph Green was walking along Sixth street on Saturday night when Officer Supplee invited him to walk to city hall where an old charge was against him. He was allowed to sleep the night away, and was called before the mayor in the morning. He was asked to pay $6.00, and upon contributing the amount was released. The charge against Green was fighting with one of the Zoellars boys about six weeks ago.

When Officer Jennings approached Richard Bennett in the Diamond on Saturday night he noticed that the man was drunk, and was using the vilest of language to express various opinions. Richard was looked up for the night, and in the morning paid $6.00 for his fun. The jail was empty this morning.

Two young men, who gave their names as Smith, went into a Market street restaurant on Saturday night, and inquired the price of oyster soup. Being told that it was 15 cents, they decided to have oyster stew, a more expensive dish. They then refused to pay, and raised a row. Officers Wyman and Supplee were in the neighborhood, and hearing the row arrested the Messrs. Smith. They were taken to the city hall, and left a deposit for their appearance today.

The Gas Came On.

John Rayle, who is interested in the oil field near Hookstown, sustained the loss of the house where his employees sleep on Saturday. The gas pipes have been frozen, and when the thaw came the gas appeared with a rush. As there was no one in the vicinity, the house was destroyed, entailing a loss of $1,200. Among the contents destroyed were several valuable guns, which Mr. Rayle prized highly. No one was injured in the fire.

After the Gang.

Sheriff Doll, of Canton, has notified the police that Courtney and the Hatfield boys escaped from the Canton jail on Saturday. Courtney, it will be remembered, is an important witness against John Henry, but is not valued highly by Stark county, since it only offers $50 for his return to jail, the price set upon the heads of the others.

Reception For Reverend O'Mara.

Reverend O'Mara, the new minister at the Episcopal church, will be tendered a reception at the parish house this evening. The gentleman is very popular with the congregation, and a large number will undoubtedly greet the clergyman tonight.

The Mayor Was Mad.

An attempt was made to serve a subpoena on Buz Allison this morning, but it was found that the individual bad quietly left town, and was nowhere to be found. As he is an important witness in the Zoellars case, the inability of the police to find him is significant. Mayor Gilbert was mad when he heard the news, and declared that it would be impossible to convict any of the local lawbreakers if witnesses were helped out of town.

The Ice Is Rotting.

Teams were crossing the river on the ice this morning, but the practice was attended by no little danger for those who ventured. The warm sun of yesterday, and the rise in the mercury last night produced an effect which could not be mistaken, the bridge showing signs of an early dissolution. It is not expected that the ice will go out today, and some rivermen are confident that it will be with us until after the middle of the week.

Sant at City Hall.

John Sant has notified Clerk Hauley that he will hold council to the contract relating to the refunding of money from the Dow tax. He says that Wellsville will cheerfully pay the amount. Meantime councilmen are saying nothing, but a lively time can be expected when the bill is brought before council for payment. There is little doubt that some, perhaps all members of council, will object to devoting money to that purpose.

A Successful Enterprise.

The woman's edition of the Salem News was a pronounced success, and put $500 into the treasury of the charitable society conducting the work. The ladies worked with a will, and were given every assistance by the management and employees of the office. Several editions of the paper were exhausted before the demand could be supplied. The News deserves commendation for its charitable disposition.

Not In Need of Aid.

Complaint is made because parties are permitted to wander through the city and collect money, food and clothing for people who are not in need. The story is told that at present there are collections being made for which there is no excuse whatever. The people supposed to be destitute have never applied to the trustees for aid.

Died Last Night.

Lutta A. Mackey, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Mackey, died yesterday, and will be buried tomorrow in Riverview cemetery. She was two years of age.

The little one died after a short struggle with diphtheritic croup, a disease that has been unknown in the city for some time.

Signed the Contract.

George Carey received a contract from the Baltimore team yesterday, and signed and returned it at once. He is ordered to meet the team at Macon, Ga., on March 12, and will leave here the Saturday preceding that date. Carey is a good man, and the Baltimore management expect great things of him during the season.

A Bakery Burglary.

Thieves broke into the bakery formerly owned by J. C. Hamilton in East End Saturday night and secured a small quantity of goods. They secured nothing of great value and did not succeed in getting away with what cash there was about the place.

Meeting Tonight.

The parties interested in the checker match proposed several weeks ago will meet at the Hilbert House tonight to complete arrangements for the affair. The interested parties are talking over the matter, and seem to be in earnest about it.

No Arrangement Yet.

Jack Darragh, the ball player, returned from Steubenville on Saturday night, but had made no arrangement to play with the Dennison club this season. Some of his friends believe he will sign a Dennison contract.

Laid to Rest.

Impressive funeral services were held this afternoon over the remains of Mrs. Anna Pusey at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Humerickhouse, Fourth street. The remains were laid to rest in Riverview cemetery.

Surprise Party.

Miss Mary Jones, who is staying at the residence of T. A. Mills, Railroad street, was surprised by a party of friends on Saturday evening. It was an enjoyable event for all who participated.

Postponed the Trial.

The case of Mears & Co., of Steubenville, against Mrs. Anna Woolcraft, was this morning postponed in the court of Squire Travis for a week. It was listed for trial today.

WITZEMAN IS IN JAIL

The Motion For His Release Is Denied.

NO BODY HAS BEEN FOUND

The Case Will Not Go to the Grand Jury Unless There Is Evidence That Some Crime Was Committed—An Opinion From the Court When He Said No.

Special to the News Review.

Lisbon, Feb. 25.—The motion to admit Witzeman, the alleged murderer of J. H. Conkle, to bail was presented to Judge Billingsley by Attorneys Warren and Morgan this morning. The question arose as to the jurisdiction of the court to act on the case, or even determine it a bailable case from the fact of Judge Billingsley having heard no evidence. The fact of the case having been heard in all its details before a magistrate vested with power to hold made it safe to assume that proof of crime against the accused is evidence or the assumption is great as to his guilt. The motion was therefore denied. The only method now left to obtain freedom for the imprisoned man is to have a hearing before Judge Young when the question can be settled for all time. A stenographic report of the evidence was filed in support of the motion, but no new light was thrown upon the darkness of the mystery. The body has not been recovered. That is now known beyond any serious doubt, and it is known that the case will not be permitted to go to the grand jury until this evidence has been secured. The mystery seems as far from being unraveled as it was the day upon which the arrests were made.

Zoellars Case Postponed.

Special to the News Review.

Lisbon, Feb. 25.—When the Zoellars case was called today, both sides asked that the case be postponed because of the absence of Mrs. Zoellars, the principal witness for each side. It is believed that she is out of the state, as she cannot be found, and as her story is absolutely necessary to complete the case, it was decided to pass it for this term and send the accused back to jail. About 50 witnesses were here, but were discharged.

Henry Denied His Guilt.

John Henry, the West township prisoner, was arraigned this morning to answer the three indictments against him, and declared that he was not guilty.

Attended the Reception.

Solicitor A. H. Clark and Attorney A. R. Mackall with W. L. Smith and Roland Patterson returned this morning from Washington, where they have been transacting business. Messrs. Clark and Mackall attended the president's reception on Thursday last, and the solicitor's opinion of the affair would hardly be pleasing to the foreigners who were present on the occasion. The affair was entirely too European for his American tastes, and the costumes worn by the ladies he thought positively shocking. A little more clothes about the shoulders and less in the train would improve the appearance of the society dames wonderfully according to the solicitor's views. Mr. Clark reports Washington's East Liverpool colony prospering.

Still Striking at Irondale.

Reports have been sent out that the tin plate men had given up the battle at Irondale, and are striking no more. As the story went they wearied of seeing their places filled by men with no interest in the town, and the few who remained in town had decided to work. Officials of the Amalgamated Association declare there is not a word of truth in the story, and the strike is on as it has been since last September.

Selling Their Goods.

The local end of the Abrams Ochman case came today when the goods of Thomas Abrams were sold at auction.

Constable Lyons announces that he will on Saturday sell the possessions of Lizzie Miller in order to satisfy a claim held by Thomas Abrams.

Reached the Tow.

After many days of hard work the Charley Hook has succeeded in reaching its tow at Babb's island, and will be prepared to face the break in the ice when it comes.

Wants to be Assessor.

J. H. Queen, at one time constable, is a candidate for township assessor. He is the first to brave the trials of a canvas for township or municipal office.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, FEB. 25

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF OHIO.

GROVER borrows the money and the people pay the bill. It is a simple game, but, like the seductive draw, eventually costs millions.

THE tocsin has already been sounded, and hundreds of Republicans are declaring their preference for governor. Meanwhile an attorney bearing the name of Nash sits quietly in his office at Columbus while his friends are rallying to his support.
He is not a big man, but there are far seeing politicians who believe he will win.

WHEN a poor, miserable excuse for a newspaper talks of enterprise it should recall the old, old story of the man who lived in a house of glass, yet persisted in throwing stones at his neighbors. Don't do it again, my boy, it doesn't look well, and only causes a derisive smile from the few people who find time in this busy day to glance at your foggy old reprints of events rewritten from accounts in the daily press.

COLUMBIANA county is all right. Its people are progressive, its farms are productive; the factories employ thousands of good workmen, and the towns contain an equal number of good citizens; the schools and colleges are filled with a rising generation of unusual brilliancy, and its churches are known far and wide for the size of their congregations, yet there are newspapers in the county who would have the world believe we are so depraved that representative citizens do not make honest public officials.

A QUESTION OF WISDOM.

THE NEWS REVIEW takes issue with all those Republican advocates who want nothing done with the Democratic tariff law until the political complexion of the administration has been changed, and a member of our own party leads the nation. We do not believe that this course would be wise or advisable, for the very simple reason that the people should not be compelled to suffer one moment longer than is absolutely necessary. The Republican party promised the country that a Republican congress would use every effort to correct the abuses of the Democrats. Business demands that there be no standing idly by while the present tariff wraps its own suspender about its unclean neck, ending its miserable life. If it is possible to win out against the president it is the duty of congress to pass a revised tariff, formed on protection lines, thus settling business conditions and preventing more scandals such as were produced by the last bond sale.

PAGAN BOB SPOKE.

The Hoboken Authorities Unable to Stop Him.

DETECTIVES SENT TO WATCH HIM.

The City Officials Determined to Prevent Colonel Ingersoll From Blaspheming.
He Alluded to the Reformers in an Ironical Way.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The attempts
made to prevent Colonel Robert Ingersoll from delivering his lecture on "The Holy Bible" at the Hoboken theater Sunday night proved a failure. As the result of a protest issued by the pastors of three of the most prominent churches
in that place Mayor Fagan Saturday issued orders that the theater be closed
Sunday, thereby practically debarring Colonel Ingersoll from appearing. The mayor's decree occasioned a great deal of comment, with the result that the matter was reconsidered.

Corporation Attorney Minturn and Mayor Fagan called upon the Rev. H. T.
Beatty—the minister who is at the head and front of the reform movement
in Hoboken—and stated to him that it was the opinion of the corporation attorney that no steps could be taken by the authorities to stop the lecture. A consultation was held in the office of Chief of Police Donovan at which, in addition to the chief, the mayor and Mr. Clark, manager for Colonel Ingersoll, were present. The two managers were informed of the decision of the corporation attorney and they departed with the assurance that the lecture might take place.

To prevent any disturbance on the part of the audience and also to stop any blasphemous utterances on the part of the lecturer, Detectives Nelson and Gallagher were sent to the theater from police headquarters. Beyond frequent bursts of applause the audience was most orderly and the speaker stuck to his text with an occasional ironical allusion to the clergymen of Hoboken and the statute of New Jersey law to which the reformers had been clinging.

A Prominent Man Murdered.

NEWTON, Ia., Feb. 25.—J. R. Zollinger, a prominent merchant and an ex-sheriff, is thought to have been murdered. When he reached home his wife noticed blood flowing down his face
and on inquiring what was the matter he stated that he had fallen or had been hit. These are the only words he spoke.
It happened within a few rods of his home. Two clubs were found near the spot where the first blood was visible.

Beaver College to Be Rebuilt.

BEAVER, Pa., Feb. 25.—Preparations are already being made to rebuild the Beaver college, which has been destroyed by fire. The 125 students have all been provided with places of lodging and not a single recitation will be missed. The Methodist Episcopal and Presbyterian churches and the commercial department of the high school will be used as classrooms.

Anxiety Over a War Vessel.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 25.—Anxiety is felt in regard to the Mexican man-of-war Libertad, which sailed from Vera Cruz about Feb. 10 for New Orleans to be docked for repairs. She was due at this port on Feb. 15, but nothing has been heard of her since leaving Vera Cruz.

Two Killed and 18 Injured.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 25.—A fire
has occurred in Rock Slope of the Tennessee Coal Iron and Railroad company's mines at Pratt City that resulted in the death of John Patton and Louis Stevens, two miners, and more or less serious injury of 18 others. They were all convicts.

A New Whisky Company.

PEORIA, Ills., Feb. 25.—A company is being formed here for the purpose of erecting two distilleries, with a capacity of 15,000 bushels each. It is understood that J. B. Greenhut is to be in charge of the company. The work is to begin at once.

Seals Nearly Exterminated.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25.—James Sheakley, governor of the territory of Alaska, now in the city, says the sealing business is practically dead. In a few years there will be no more seals,
the poachers having all but exterminated
them.

Driver and Horse Frozen to Death.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 25.—Joseph B. Hall of North Beach, Md., was frozen to death while attempting to drive across Sinepuxent bay on the ice. His dead horse and buggy were found later fast
in the ice.

May Follow Germany's Action.

PARIS, Feb. 25.—At a meeting of the cabinet council, M. Gadeau, minister of agriculture, submitted a decree prohibiting the importation into France of American cattle on account of Texas
fever and pleuro-pneumonia.

Temperance Society Anniversary.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The sixtythird anniversary exercises of the Congressional Temperance society drew a large attendance at the Vermont Avenue Christian church. Congressman Dingley of Maine, presided.

May Attack Formosa.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The Times today
publishes a dispatch from Kobe, Japan, stating that another Japanese force is being mobilized at Hiroshima for the purpose, it is supposed, of making an attack on the island of Formosa.

A Bank Teller Arrested.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Feb. 25.—Walker
G. Hamner, for 20 years the trusted teller of the First National bank, has been arrested here charged with embezzling $23,000 of the bank's funds.

More Money For the War.

TOKIO, Feb. 25.—The diet has voted the extra war credit of 100,000,000 yen ($100,000,000) asked for by the government.

CLEARED OF ONE CHARGE.

But Captain Howgate Goes Back to Jail
to Meet Seven Others.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Captain
Henry W. Howgate, formerly disbursing clerk of the signal service, who has been on trial here since Jan. 25, on two indictments charging him with embezzlement and forgery, has been acquitted of the charges. The case was given to the jury at noon on Thursday last and it was not until noon Sunday that a verdict was reached. On the first ballot, it is said, the vote stood 7 to 5 for acquittal.
The Howgate case has been unusual in many ways. Fourteen years ago important frauds affecting large sums of money were discovered in the signal service accounts, and Howgate was charged with having committed them.
He was arrested, but by a ruse escaped from his guards, and for 13 years remained in New York city. Although a

HENRY W. HOWGATE.

reward of $5,000 was offered for his capture, he was not arrested until last fall. At the beginning of the trial there was a hot legal battle in regard to the validity of the indictments on which it was proposed to try Howgate.
They were finally sustained, and the case tried on its merits. The jury found that the case was not barred by the statute of limitations, but held that Howgate was not guilty of the particular offenses charged. After the verdict was rendered, Howgate was sent back to jail to await trial on the seven indictments still remaining against him.
It is not known which of these will first be tried.

Will Leave the Old K. of L.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 25.—At its quarterly convention next Wednesday District assembly No. 3, K. of L., will join the new order of Independent Knights of Labor, recently formed at Columbus.
The announcement is made on the authority of several leading local knights. Some local assemblies have already instructed their delegates to vote for secession from the Sovereign Hayes combination as the old organization is styled. All the delegates to the convention will be instructed on this point, and sentiment seems unanimous for secession.

The Andrews Company.

The Andrews Opera company will present Fra Diavola at the Grand tomorrow evening, and the advance sale of seats has been so encouraging that a crowded house is expected. The company have a reputation which could only have been won by talent and creditable performances, and there is every reason to believe that the opera tomorrow evening will be a theatrical event worthy the notice of all. The opera is a comic lyric in three acts.

John Kernell with his superb company will be the attraction at the Grand tonight. "McFadden's Elopement" is the play, one of the best Irish comedies on the road. The inimitable antics of the great comedian are well calculated to produce laughter, and the strong supporting company adds much to the effective production of the piece.

Someone Has Blundered.

Some individual, who may possess a slight smattering of knowledge concerning the crockery industry of the country, has sent out a press dispatch from Pittsburg predicting a disastrous strike in all the potteries of the land. He says that the last settlement was made at the instigation of the Trenton manufacturers, who are at the head of the combination, and now these men have ordered a reduction in wages of from 25 to 50 per cent, which will affect the potteries in Ohio. The chap confounds the sanitary strike recently inaugurated in Trenton with the potters who make other ware, and should learn a thing or two before he again attempts to send out information.

A Smile For This.

A special from Johnstown gives this little story:

A 12-foot bed of clay of first-class quality at this place promises to give Johnstown an additional industry. It had been known for some time that the clay is here, but a recent test shows it to be superior to that used in the manufacture of the famous Trenton crockery.

A Horse Found Frozen to Death.

ALTOONA, Pa., Feb. 25.—While workmen under the direction of the township supervisor were cleaning a huge snow-drift from the public road between Chester Springs and Carrolltown, (6 mi. distant), they unearthed a horse and sleigh. The horse had been frozen in the drift evidently on the night of the recent blizzard. The dead body of the animal was standing upright and the robes were found in the sleigh. It is believed that the people who occupied the sleigh, finding themselves snow-bound, started on foot to a farmhouse about a mile away, and losing their road, perished in the snowstorm.

In Jail In Berlin.

BERLIN, Feb. 25.—A case in which an American woman, named Emma S. Bross, is involved is now pending before the criminal court here. She claims to have been married to Count Perponcher, son of the ex-chief court marshal of Emperor William I, while the young count was in America, but that the marriage was concealed because of family opposition. Her alleged husband is now in Egypt. She is charged with having committed perjury in denying in court her relations with a Berlin physician whose wife is now suing for divorce.

Evidently Partial to Them.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 25.—The czar has ordered the appointment of a commission to found, in memory of the late Czar Alexander, an institution where a home will be provided for disabled authors, artists and actors. It was only a few weeks ago that the czar gave out of his privy purse the sum of 50,000 roubles for the purpose of providing pensions for authors.

Charged With Forgery.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Feb. 25.—Frank Campbell of Elysburg, a short distance from here, has been placed under bail for forgery. Campbell presented a note to which he had attached the signature of Frank Leisenring for $2,000, at the First National bank of Mt. Carmel, but the cashier refused to discount it until Campbell had been identified. The wouldbe swindler has made his escape.

The McKintys In Chicago.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 25.—Governor McKinley expected to spend Sunday with Mrs. McKinley in Cleveland, and stopped there on his way back from Detroit, but the receipt of information of the death at Chicago of Mrs. McKinley's aunt, Mrs. Goodman, caused a change of plans and they went on to Chicago.

Condemned the Police.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25.—At a meeting of the United Labor league, a resolution which has been under consideration for the past month, condemning the police authorities for suppressing the speech of Anarchist Mowbray, was adopted. The vote was 16 labor organizations in favor of the resolution, 4 against it and 9 absent or not voting.

A Family Terrified and Robbed.

ZANESVILLE, O., Feb. 25.—Six masked robbers broke into the residence of Miss Jane Morrison, near Gilbert's station, and after trying and terrifying the household, carried away $200 and some notes. Miss Morrison is a sister of William Morrison of West Lafayette, a wealthy canoe man, who was once a candidate for board of public works.

Woodruff Convicted at Last.
